

I am writing to object to any weakening of the Wisconsin No-Call law by forcing it to comply with the much weaker federal law. I am quite capable of finding sources of products such as banking and credit cards without paying for those same industries to call me on my private telephone line. We are very happy with the strong Wisconsin law, and do not believe that any change is necessary.